If you use our website to access further information about the Hospice, please see our website Privacy Notice. It can be found at <http://stmichaelshospice.com/privacy-notice>

How do we use the information we collect about you?

We use your personal data for a number of purposes including the following:

- To prepare thank you letters / emails to acknowledge safe receipt of all donations unless notified otherwise
- To prepare and submit Gift Aid claims to HMRC
- Mailing relevant information to you based on your stated preferences
- To arrange the collecting and delivering of items at your request
- If you have attended a live event, contact details will be kept in line with government guidance and the requirements of the NHS Test and Trace scheme.

Under the Data Protection Act 2018 we are permitted to process your information for one or more of the following reasons:

- you have provided consent
- it is necessary for us to be legally compliant
- to fulfil your contractual obligations
- there is a legitimate interest to do so (e.g. in our role as an employer)

The Hospice will carry out a Legitimate Interest Assessment (LIA) for cases where legitimate interest is being used as a basis for processing information.

We will never share or sell your information to third parties for marketing purposes or for any unjustifiable reason.

We will provide your information to authorised parties as appropriate, e.g. HMRC, Gambling Commission, Company Auditors, only with the information they need to deliver the relevant service. In addition, if there is a legitimate business interest we will share appropriate information within the organisation.

How do we protect your information?

We don't keep your information for longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed. This is in accordance with our Data Protection policy which adheres to the Data Protection Act 2018.

We have IT systems that we use to keep your information safe and secure. Where this information is on a database that is not hosted by the Hospice, we have service contracts with providers that give assurance of compliance with the relevant legislation and standards for data security. Externally hosted databases and platforms are subject to EU General Data Protection Regulations, adequacy decisions or standard contractual clauses, for non-EU countries. Data Processors used by the Hospice that are either based outside the EU or UK, or who have sub-processors based outside the EU/UK, include:

- Stripe Payments Europe, Ltd – sub-processors based in the United States
- Eventbrite – data stored in United States.

Where your information is not kept electronically we have security measures, policies and an audit process in place to ensure your information remains secure, not retained or processed unless there is a documented justifiable reason and is only shared on a “needs to know” basis.

How long do we keep your information?

The length of time that we will retain your information will vary depending on the nature of the record. Our Data Protection policy specifies the length of retention period for specific information and this is determined either by statutory guidance or best practice. A copy of our Data Protection policy can be requested by sending an email to DPO@stmichaelshospice.com

What are your rights over your information that you have provided to us?

Under the Data Protection Act 2018, you have the right to:

- Access your personal data by making a Subject Access Request
- Request rectification, erasure or to restrict your data
- Right to object to the processing of your data
- Data portability-right to request transfer of data
- Make a complaint to the organisation that processes your information (St Michael's Hospice) or the Information Commissioners Office (ICO).

All requests will be considered and complied with in line with ICO guidance.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date.
